CCPG and Dr. Linda Graves Present

"Wanna Bet? A Look at Teen Gambling"

Wednesday, September 28th @ 10am PST

CCPG-U Webinars Unit 4 Series

Social Impact and Adversities

Register Now!

For all Behavioral Health/Treatment Specialists:
This first module in the Social Impact and Adversities series is instructed by Dr. Linda Graves, PsyD, NCGC-II.

Though gambling is usually thought of as an adult activity, surveys find that teenagers manage to participate in all types of gambling, both regulated and non-regulated. The teens who gamble range from social gamblers to what we now know as disordered gamblers. This workshop will discuss the changing social climate for teen gambling, the motives and attraction that lead teens to gambling activities, and some risk factors and life predictors for gambling problems. Some protective factors will be discussed, as well as some ideas for prevention.

Unit Outline:

- Changing environments for teen gaming
- Teen motives for gambling
- Life predictors for teen gambling disorder
